S. A. D. #44 DIRECTORS HOLD MEETING MONDAY

A regular meeting of S. A. D. #44 board of directors was held in the Library at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

Blaine MacKay and Michele Cox of the Telstar Student Council informed the board of current happenings at the high school.

Supt. Kenneth Smith reported that Archie Young would be resigning as S. A. D. #44 representative to the NOVA board because of health reasons. Mr. Smith said that a replacement would be recommended at the June 5 meeting.

Telstar Middle School Principal Walter Phillips announced that the Middle School's seventh grade would be participating in a pilot Maine Studies program next year. Mrs. Ellie Tracy and Peter Brown will act as co-ordinators for this special project.

Mrs. Marie Wilson was approved as Director of Adult and Community Education and of Federal Programs for fiscal year 1979. A stipend for Jerry Heffley, Director of Pop/Stage Bands, was approved for 1978-79 year. The board passed over action on a stipend for the Director of Elementary Physical Education until a new job description is approved by the directors.

The board declined to approve posting of the following extracurricular positions for the 1978-79 year: High School Yearbook Advisor, Newspaper Advisor, Drama Coach, Middle School Drama Coach, and Newspaper Advisor. The positions were referred to the Extra Curricular and Finance Committee for joint review.

Posting authority was granted for athletic positions for the 1978-79 school year.

Authorization was granted for the superintendent to apply for Title I funding for FY 79.

The bid of W. J. Wheeler and Co., Inc. to provide insurance coverage for the district for the July 1, 1978-June 30, 1981 period was accepted.

Following an executive session action on retention of a District Labor Relations Consultant was tabled until the June 5 meeting.

The board voted to pay S. A. D. #39 (Buckfield) tuition costs and reasonable transportation costs for a S. A. D. #44 student residing in an area remote from bus routes. The request of Mrs. Linda Gilbert for a one year leave of absence for the 1978-79 year was approved.

There was discussion of the current district policy on drugs. Comments included thoughts that the policy should contain more stringent penalties and that the board should be kept better informed on instances of its implementation.

Board members absent Monday were Gilbert Dunham, Greenwood, and James Sysko of Newry.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO UNITE EFFORTS WITH EDUCATION WORK COUNCIL

At the May business meeting of the Bethel Chamber of Commerce, it was decided to unite the efforts of the chamber and the education work council in a number of areas of mutual interest to the two organizations. Donald Bean, Executive director of the local council gave a brief resume of the background and goals of the council, including the fact that of the 33 councils set up country-wide Bethel's is unique due to its rural setting. Discussion centered on the qualifications of local tradesmen to instruct vocational classes and on "career days" at the school where local employers could interview prospective new employees from the student body.

John E. Grover was elected to fill the vacancy of Vice President.

Revised constitution and by-laws formulated by the chamber in 1977 will be accepted unless there is an objection raised during the period that they are posted for public inspection at the Casco Bank, Post Office and Town Office.

As a pilot project for outdoor information centers, it was decided to construct an information display at The Gem Shop where the chamber currently maintains its principal information center. Based on tourist response to this type of information display, the plan is to construct similar types of information centers which could in the following years be placed on the main approaches into the Bethel recreational area.

The chamber was asked to terminate exactly what service is available to Bethel and where schedule information is available in the town. The Executive Committee is to also look into a location for a central bus stop which could be posted and used as a location for displaying schedule information. The Bethel Spa Motel was one place suggested as a bus stop location.

FINAL PAK MEETING

Next Tuesday, May 23, Pak 566 will hold its final Pak Meeting and Awards Ceremony at the Bethel Savings Bank at 7 p. m. The theme for the month is Beautification and all Cub Scouts are urged to bring their Cub projects for display. This is a most important meeting for all Cub Scouts as final details for summertime events will be given out. All Cub Scouts will have to get a final form to be filled out by their parents at the meeting. Plan to be there and help in the excitement and fun.

grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy and Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Cummings, West Bethel, plan to attend the Saturday evening concert, returning home on Sunday.

There will be a registration and practice on Thursday, May 18, at 6 p. m. Meeting place will be the Telstar Parking Lot.

A quick landing at the airport, ran across to the river where they both plunged into the icy water trying to reach the downed chutist. After three futile attempts, Alan ran upstream hoping the current would assist him in reaching his brother, who by then had been held under water by the strong current and tangled chute for several minutes. Chapman's first attempt at going downstream also proved futile, but again he tried, and on his fifth attempt, Alan was able to grab his brother's life preserver. While he clung to the preserver, on-lookers were pulling the two men out of the river with a rope brought to the scene by George Gilbert, who had heard Sam's cries.

As the two brothers were pulled from the river, the elder exhausted, the younger laying lifeless, Craig Paul immediately took over with emergency mouth to mouth resuscitation, aided by quick action from Sam Stone and other on-lookers who cut away the tangled chute. Craig worked on Sam for several minutes before he responded, and remained with him while awaiting the ambulance. Chapman was immediately transported to Rumford Community Hospital where he was later reported in good condition and expected to be released on Monday.

BROTHER RESCUES SKY-DIVER IN SUNDAY, MAY 14, ACCIDENT

For Sam Chapman, Bethel, Mother's Day developed into near tragedy. The 25 year old parachutist, making his 14th jump on Sunday, had taken a perfect spot and opened his chute without any difficulty, when a sudden change in wind buffeted his chute off course and toward the Androscoggin River just west of the Route 2 bridge. Sensing his imminent landing, Chapman yelled to the crowd below for assistance and a rope. With his life preserver inflated, sky-diver and chute hit the water. Unable to unhook the chute from his harness, Chapman was pulled down by the strong current. On-lookers tried in vain to assist him and one, Cassie Stevenson, managed to reach Sam, but she too was unable to unhook the chute or to pull him ashore.

Meanwhile, Chapman's brother, Alan, and his pilot, Craig Paul, noting the commotion made a quick landing at the airport, ran across to the river where they both plunged into the icy water trying to reach the downed chutist. After three futile attempts, Alan ran upstream hoping the current would assist him in reaching his brother, who by then had been held under water by the strong current and tangled chute for several minutes. Chapman's first attempt at going downstream also proved futile, but again he tried, and on his fifth attempt, Alan was able to grab his brother's life preserver. While he clung to the preserver, on-lookers were pulling the two men out of the river with a rope brought to the scene by George Gilbert, who had heard Sam's cries.

As the two brothers were pulled from the river, the elder exhausted, the younger laying lifeless, Craig Paul immediately took over with emergency mouth to mouth resuscitation, aided by quick action from Sam Stone and other on-lookers who cut away the tangled chute. Craig worked on Sam for several minutes before he responded, and remained with him while awaiting the ambulance. Chapman was immediately transported to Rumford Community Hospital where he was later reported in good condition and expected to be released on Monday.

Northwest Bethel

Clarice Gibson, Corres.
Monday evening and the rain that they had predicted for the week end has come. The early part of last week the rains came and it seems as though the grass turned green over night. The trees are budding and looking out across the mountains while driving we see the start of a new awakening. In the fall the colors are much brighter as the leaves turn but I like the soft colors of spring.

Here is another poem my friend gave me.

Garden Call
The hands are tired of dishes,
Dust cloth, bed and broom.
The whole outside is calling
Where the pinks drifts fragrant bloom.

For garden soil and touch of earth
My hands and heart are itching,
The garden call is much too strong
To stay here in the kitchen!

After these rains one will have to get into the perennials before the weeds overtake them.

In last week's paper I left out Pat Murphy, Foy Murphy and Syd Murphy also helped clean out the Frank Murphy lot. Frank said that Sidney was head of the brush crew and was doing a very good job. The lot is almost opposite from Charles Mason III trailer. It is on the river side of the road.

Mother's Day week end besides Frank and Sidney, their helpers were Danny Hannon, Frank's father, Pat Murphy, James Monahan, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Murphy and daughter, Chandra came from Colebrook, N. H. Mother's Day week end. Dean also helped his parents, the Frank Murphys, on their lot.

Stan Moore hired a cleanup crew over the week end. He had Ira Gibson, Richard Saunders, Rick Angvine, Jody Shimamura and Chris Merrill, Bethel and Peter Morton, Newry. Unless one saw the intervals by the river one could not comprehend the debris left from our January flood. Silt, dead branches and anything else the river had picked up upstream and left along the way where it wished.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith and Matthew, South Paris, visited his folks, the Homer Smiths.

Sammy Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, had a near escape from a parachute accident Sunday. He landed in the Androscoggin River behind Stan Moore's and after many attempts his brother pulled him out. Craig Paul revived him with mouth to mouth resuscitation. The ambulance took him to Rumford hospital where he was released the next day.

Wednesday evening Pat Saunders, Roberta Saunders and I went to the Mother-Daughter banquet at Newry.

Timmy Angvine had his sixth birthday, May 9, at his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angvine's. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angvine, at aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge came for cake and ice cream.

Dick Angvine had his 35th birthday, May 12. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angvine invited the family up for cake and ice cream.

Sue Angvine went to Telstar Monday night as her daughter.

Songo Pond

— Mrs. Ralph Kimball, Corres. —
Welcome back to the Guy Butlers who returned to their summer cottage here one day last week.

Mrs. Iva Burgess of Yarmouth visited last week with her daughter and husband, the Jimmy Kimballs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Doyen went to Augusta Saturday to spend Mother's Day with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Awaht. His parents from Auburn joined them for dinner on Sunday.

Many of the cottage owners were around opening and cleaning up around their cottages this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hindman of New London, N. H., visited relatives in the area over the week-end.

Sunday visitors of Mrs. Ralph Kimball were her three daughters and their families and she had a phone call from her other daughter in Alaska.

She is visiting her sister for a time.

Walter Lapham called on the Howard Lapham's Tuesday and spent the night with his sister in Norway.

Weston Flint and Mrs. Irene Haggood were visitors of the Jesse Doyens Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kallis are expecting guests Thursday — Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stratis from New Laguna Beach, Fla., and their son, Anthony, who is a student at Helene College in Boston. It will be their first trip to Maine. The Kallis will be celebrating their 39th anniversary next Tuesday.

The horse would have a good laugh today if he could see all those drivers adjusting their shoulder harnesses.

A short business meeting followed. 15 members were there. Helen Varner, pro-tem, called the meeting to order. Reading of reports of secretary and treasurer were omitted.

A Happy Mothers day to all the mothers everywhere. May you enjoy your day to the fullest. Greetings are a little late but they are sincere.

I haven't been able to put the flag out for a week but I did get it out today.

Horbert and Jackie Stevens went to Massachusetts Wednesday. Joe Barrett came home by ambulance Friday and Saturday afternoon they moved him to Ledgeview nursing home for a few days and then he may go to Togus for a while until I am able to take over again. I had three trips to the doctor in six days. He said I wouldn't have pneumonia if I followed the doctor's orders. Such beautiful weather to be nursing cots. I suppose I could do worse.

Dandelion greens are growing fast and all the neighbors are digging them. Good spring tonic.

Callers at Lawrence's: Arlene, Jo-Ann Abbott, Alice Goff, Mexico; Phil Williams, Thelma and Hermon Card, Nancy Mason.

WEST BETHEL CHILDREN'S CENTER
It doesn't seem possible there is only this week and next week left of the Head Start school year. The children have had their first big experience away from home. Next year they will be off to public school and hopefully well prepared to face this event.

The children are doing many different activities this week. They can play at the water table, paint at the easel, make granola bars, read in the library or draw pictures of foods. Last week the children enjoyed their spring walks with Kim, but as you can see, it is a little too wet outside this week to be able to do that.

The food and craft sale was a success, netting $26.75 and there is still money coming in.

There is a parent meeting Thursday night, May 18, at 6:00 with a pot luck supper. It is the last one this year, so please come and bring a dish. Phyllis Dock

Are you losing interest on your savings every month?

If you're settling for just the regular savings rate on most of your savings, you probably are losing interest every month since you could be earning more.

You should have both regular savings and certificates — with only as much as you need at your fingertips, and the rest of your savings earning more interest in certificates.

Casco's Savings Manager Service helps you decide how much you should have in each kind of savings by making it easy to find the savings combination that's right for you.

Savings Manager also helps you get your savings in order and keep them that way by telling you where you stand with your different kinds of savings on one simple, single-page statement.

NEWS FROM THE BETHEL NAZARENE CHURCH

On Baby Day, May 7, Charles B.
 Mason IV, son of Mr. and Mrs.
 Charles B. Mason, III, was dedicated to the Lord by Rev. Donald C. Smith. Although babies may be baptized in the Nazarene Church if requested by the parents, it is the policy of the church, since babies have no way of understanding the sacred meaning of baptism, to encourage parents to dedicate their babies. This is a promise by the parents to raise their child in the Christian faith and encourage the child to live as God would have him live and when the child is old enough to understand to accept Jesus Christ as his own Saviour and Lord since each person is required to make this decision for himself. The church is also charged with the responsibility of providing a good Christian atmosphere for the child to grow up in. The child is then given a Certificate of Dedication. A red ribbon was also presented to the mother following the dedication of the babies on the church roll and their mothers were presented with silk flowers to keep as a remembrance. Colored daisies were presented to each older child present in honor of Baby Day. Following the church service a fellowship dinner was held in the dining room.

On May 14 Mother's Day was celebrated in the Bethel Nazarene Church. Each Sunday School child was given a plastic flower to take home to the mother. At the church the mothers were presented a begonia plant by a representative of the family present. Rev.
 Donald Smith gave a sermon on the responsibility of being a mother as set forth in the Bible.

Letters to the Editor

To the editor:
 The Humanities class at Telstar Regional High School recently discussed rules they believed parents should follow in order to do a good job raising teenagers. After two class periods of discussion, the students decided upon these eight general principles:

1. Show your teenager love and affection.
 2. Take interest in what your teenager does.
 3. Don't try to run the life of your teenager.
 4. Be patient.
 5. Give your teenager responsibilities.
 6. Don't compare your teenager to someone else.
 7. Be firm, but fair.
 8. Trust him (or her).

We submit this to your readers in the hope that someone may be interested. We welcome any reaction that people may have.

"This day is made of joy and peace.
With bright green fields to see
And amber sun to wash the road
And Robins singing free.
Today I'll share the hours with
That azure sweep of sky,
And watch the daisies on the hill
And hear the wind rush by.
I'll keep this lovely golden day
A treasured time apart,
Like long warm days of childhood
Saved softly in the heart."

I took a familiar trail up the hill on Noyes Mountain for spring beckoned that afternoon and I willingly responded to its signal.
In about fifteen minutes I had climbed a rise that leveled off and became a tiny, wedge-shaped plateau.

I listened to the changing sounds of the wilderness. The land was carpeted with pine needles, and I enjoyed the feel of their feathery softness, their aroma, and the small breeze humming and waving through the green lattice.
Somebody once said, "Some people sit and think and some people just sit." I wanted to "just sit" so I did for a while. I scanned the country through my glasses.

A partridge came strutting from under a tight clump of spruce trees. I watched it as it walked away, knowing that I was there but believing it was concealed and protected by the spreading

Linda Allen and Iva Fox of Monmouth, helped to a bed room for their mother, Iva Fox.

It must be spring; birds, black flies and folks have planted potatoes at North Fryeburg.

The church rummage sale held Friday and Saturday was a big success thanks to all who worked on it.

Ether Harriman called at her sister's Friday.

Rosemary Smith took her mother, Iva Fox, to Auburn, shopping Saturday; also called on our aunt, Bernice Carver in the nursing home. At 88, aunt Bernice hasn't a complaint, a really unusual person.

The Albert Fox family was at his mother's Saturday evening.

There were about 60 out at our church service Sunday. A nice sermon and there were 12 in the choir. Everywhere it was yellow with daffodils. Very pretty, and as each mother left, she was given one.

branches to afford a leisurely retreat rather than bursting into a hurried, noisy flight.

When it had disappeared, I walked into the spruces. A red squirrel challenged the stillness.

Out on the ledges the view of the ponds was perfect. How they sparkled in the sun; an enormous mirror that reflected the images of blue sky and green growth and rugged gray of granite.

Basking in the sunshine I heard the clamor of ducks, with voices husky and soft, as they swam just off shore.

The red trillium seemed uncertain as to whether spring had come to stay. However it unfurled its crimson signal and sent forth its unpleasant odor.

In contrast I found the arbutus or Mayflower with waxy blossoms and delicious breath.

Going to one of the hollows, which was watered by a clear gurgling brook that always appeals to every country loving heart; the sunlight filtered through leafless branches; I found myriads of dog-tooth violets or trout lilies. Each one was guarded by a pair of mot-tled, erect, sentinel-like leaves. They are abundant on my lawn around the house, too.

I saw the black-throated blue warbler. Its colors are striking rather than bright. I had never seen one before and until I saw it close I thought it was a junco.

After some over an hour of "woods" I came back home. Now I have watched the darkness arrive. The birds have roosted and quieted their voices. The moon hangs like a silver melon "catching rain" while it illuminates the pond with soft light. Black and white ducks quack their contentment.

Mr. and Mrs. Franze Mills, Shapleigh, called on Frank and Dot Curtis and on us on Sunday afternoon. Other callers at Frank's were Evelyn Heikkinen, Mexico; John Swan, Locke Mills and Mildred Bowman, Hebron.

Mr. and Mrs. Leomas Holt went to Bangor on Sunday where they met their children, Robert and Jeri, David and Sharon, and Ann, and their only grandchild, Daniel.

Here I am on the glassed-in porch with Blackie-cat trying to write some news. I asked him where he had been all morning and all he would do is bite my pen so no news from that source. Well, anyway we are enjoying warmer weather although this morning it was 30° at 6 o'clock—but it warmed up. The wind blew so I was able to dry three loads of washing before dinner and finished the ironing before eating. House cleaning calls for a lot of washings.

I was in Turner at their Grange Saturday when Dorothea Gibbs was surprised by "This is your life" story. They had a very interesting meeting. Reginald Edwards, Mechanic Falls, showed 60 home over the week end. They also visited her parents, the Allens in North Lovell and her grandfather, Lester Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Grover had all their children home for Mothers Sunday.

Union Church News:

The closing exercises and awards presentation of the Sunday School will be held Sunday, May 21, at 9 a. m. during the regular church service. All parents and friends are welcome!

The Ladies Circle meeting was held Wednesday, May 17, at the Sunday School room. Vivian Hoy demonstrated quilt making and Marion Swan made the birthday cake for those with birthdays during May. Rev. Wuori led the devotions at the meeting.

The following items have been taken from the newsletter, the "County Church Courier," put out by the Locke Mills Church and the First Congregational Church in Andover. They are the items of interest to Locke Mills residents.

The Locke Mills Union Church was sponsoring a young lady from San Salvador, Benita Maria, 13 years, for this year. Marina has decided to marry and stay in the area. A coffee in honor of this occasion was held by church friends after the services on May 7. Gifts were presented and refreshments served. Marina has been teaching Sunday School at Locke Mills since her arrival here.

Maybasket time officially here! Sunday School teachers Donna Curtis, Margie Swan and Dick Melville were seen last Sunday racing over the hills in pursuit of their classes—a yearly tradition at the Locke Mills Sunday School. Dick's class is really taking care of him as they prepared an all natural health food Maybasket for him.

Everyone is happy to hear that John Chase is back to work after his surgery.

Progress on the Locke Mills Church parking lot is underway. Culverts have been ordered and information gathered from the state on how to install storm drains.

Reminder: The Adult Study Group meets every Thursday at 7:30 p. m. The topic this month is Hebrews. The Youth Group meets at 8:30 p. m. on Thursdays.

The Town of Greenwood Assessors will be working week ends until the first of July checking property and dogs.

There will be no Colt League baseball this year due to fact that the Woodstock field cannot be used.

Friday and Saturday will be Poppy Days in Locke Mills and Bryant Pond. It would be nice if everyone would wear a poppy? This memorial is in memory of those who gave their lives and to say "thank you" to the veterans in the group who fought for their country and make these poppies for us to wear.

Laura Seames was at the Medical Center Wednesday to see Dr. Medd. She has tendonitis in her arm and has to every other day to the Stephens Memorial Hospital for therapy.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cole, Marie and Susie, spent Saturday night with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fairbanks.

Ralph Mills spent the week end at his home here.

Mrs. Lettie Ford was taken by ambulance to Stephens Memorial Hospital Sunday where she was placed in the Intensive Care Unit. Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Cole, Lynn and Jean, of West Peru, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Noyes, Coland, and Mattie of Wilton were Sun-

Refrigerator Death Traps
An old abandoned refrigerator on your back porch—or your neighbor's—could be a death trap for your child. Many children have climbed into these tempting cubby holes and closed the door only to be pulled out dead from suffocation after a long, heartbreaking search. It doesn't take long for these tightly insulated refrigeration units to snuff out a life. A child becomes unconscious in ten minutes and dies within twenty-five minutes. And surviving even a short time without oxygen can cause permanent brain damage. Advice: If you have small children, use the key that came with your freezer—certainly

SENIOR CITIZENS OBSERVE 16th ANNIVERSARY

The Senior Citizens met at the Sunday River Inn for their 16th anniversary meeting Wednesday, May 10. It was preceded by a Mothers Day program. Four poems pertaining to mothers were read by Edna York, Elizabeth Lord, Helen Varner and Adeline Dexter.

Pearl Tibbitts, Rena Abbott, Maggie Lovell, and Jennie Coburn were unable to be present. All received a corsage for this occasion. Then to her surprise, Helen Varner presented the president with a corsage from the group.

The meeting was then opened in form. All officers were present. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. With the rising cost of living, it was voted that a committee of three or four furnish the birthday cake in the future.
